Film Forum Curator: Adam Sekuler

Since 2006 Northwest Film Forum Program Director, Adam Sekuler, has brought the Forum into a national leadership position through alternative film exhibition, curating individual films, director retrospectives and film festivals. He has initiated and organized major traveling programs for films that have screened across the country and has devised a network among arts organizations for distributing otherwise undistributed films. Before arriving in Seattle four years ago Adam was programmer for the nation's first and only dedicated non-fiction theatre, The Bell Auditorium. He is also co-founder of Search and Rescue, an ongoing effort to present and preserve discarded archives of 16mm films.
