Law Practice

Josh Brower is the founding partner of Brower Law PS, a boutique legal services firm. Josh practices in the areas of land use, development and real estate law, with an emphasis on complex project permitting, purchase and sales, due diligence, property disputes, appeals and litigation. He represents developers of wind farms and other renewable energy projects, developers of multi-family, single-family and commercial projects, business owners and organizations. Josh works with clients to obtain land use approvals, conduct environmental review, negotiate purchase and sale agreements, perform due diligence, and address permitting and legislative issues involving zoning, platting, shoreline compliance and growth management. Josh is an experienced land use and real estate trial lawyer, having successfully represented clients in administrative tribunals, superior court actions, alternative dispute resolution proceedings, and before the Washington Appellate Courts.

Josh also devotes a significant amount of his practice to advising closely-held Seattle-based businesses as outside general counsel. Josh provides strategic business and legal advice, and handles corporate governance and commercial litigation matters for his clients.

Prior to attending law school, Josh worked as an environmental planner and consultant. Since 2005, Josh has been recognized by Washington Law & Politics as a Super Lawyer.®
