Employment and Relevant Work Experience

Mid 2007-present Café Presse Pike-Pine Corridor Seattle, WA

Co-Owner

I opened this second French Café along with my business partner in June of 2007. I was involved in every stage of setting up this new business, from writing the business plan to securing the location, to planning and designing the space (an old converted auto repair shop) to beverage menu development, to staffing. We have received positive reviews for our restaurant, and have been cited as a great addition to the neighborhood. I oversee all aspects of the dining room and bookkeeping, and serve as Wine Director. We host visiting wine makers and have special events celebrating French holidays and traditions.

2000-present Le Pichet Pike Place Market Seattle, WA

Co-Owner

I opened this French Café along with my business partner in the summer of 2000. I was involved in every stage of planning and designing the space, including the submission of our application to the Pike Place Market Historical Commission for approval. Our restaurant continues to receive very positive reviews and is cited in both local and national press as a great addition to the Seattle restaurant scene. I continue to serve as Service Manager, Wine Director, Bookkeeper and Host. We have special events hosting wine makers, visiting cookbook authors, and celebrating French holidays.

1988-2000 The RUINS Queen Anne Hill Seattle, WA

Assistant Director

I worked in all phases of this catering and private dining club business including the overseeing of major events for important business and arts groups such as the Seattle Art Museum, The Seattle Symphony, the Frye Art Museum, the Rep Theatre, etc. We also worked in the homes of many Seattle residents, as well as on-site at this most interesting and eclectic facility. I planned weddings and other events, hired and trained staff, oversaw decorations, and assisted the owner in all phases of management.

1991-1998 Historic Seattle Pioneer Square Seattle, WA

I assisted in many activities including the organization, staffing and overseeing of fundraising events. Additionally, I organized holiday events for staff, wrote articles about featured buildings for their newsletters, and helped train new volunteers.
