“Shihan” Mac Scotty. McGregor

Headmaster, McGregor’s Martial Arts & A Safer You
& co-owner of Bad Brothers Productions

Shihan McGregor is one of the highest-ranking martial artists in the world and is recognized by many as the best competitive fighters in traditional martial arts. Shihan” literally translates “Teacher of Teachers” and is Mac’s martial arts Title. Mac is one of only a handful of martial artist to be awarded the rank of tenth degree in a traditional Okinawan / Japanese martial art. Mac now has over thirty-nine years experience in the martial arts and holds the rank of fourth degree or higher in seventeen different traditional styles of martial arts. Shihan Mac is a keynote speaker at youth events, motivational events, sporting events, entrepreneurial groups and travels worldwide for appearances on television programs, talk shows, at martial arts & sports clinics and corporate seminars.

His martial arts career began at the age of seven when he joined a self-defense class at his elementary school, and has continued uninterrupted throughout his life. Mac is an open transgendered male activist, who believes the way we make change is to be out about who we are & open to talk about it in a productive way. Making change and acceptance with a growing understanding for one another makes us stronger as a whole community

Shihan McGregor has been recognized numerous times for his skills and contributions to the martial arts: Mac has done stunt work in several TV shows, has been a bodyguard to many celebrities and is now co-owner of Bad Brothers Productions a documentary and training film company.
