Background: Don Vehige AIA is an urban designer and associate at GGLO. His work is focused on urban redevelopment for communities throughout the Pacific Northwest and Northern California. Don has specific expertise in mixed use and transit oriented development, streetscapes and low-income housing. Skilled at synthesizing and communicating complex design issues to a wide range of audiences, he has also facilitated many charrettes and public design workshops. Don is passionate about urban design excellence. For him, this begins with a deep understanding of a site's physical, ecological and cultural contexts. Using this knowledge to explore projects at multiple scales and from different perspectives reveals unexpected and inspired results, whether the final product is a neighborhood plan, public space or building. Don graduated from the University of Minnesota with a Bachelor of Architecture and the University of California - Berkeley with a Master of Landscape Architecture. Don is often the first commissioner to raise issues and has the natural ability to say what other commissioners are thinking. He is earnest, probing and tactful. Because of his broad education and commitment to staying up on the latest in his fields, he can ably and authentically discuss design across many spectrums: landscape architecture, architecture, and urban design. He participated in the WSDOT Montlake Triangle design charrettes, providing advice on urban design and helped craft the Design Commission letter encouraging Transit Oriented Development in Seattle.
