Objective

Utilize cultural and professional skill set and training to successfully work with at risk Latino youth and families.

Profile

I have a vision to offer hope and opportunities to create safer communities and resilient Latino youth. By sharing my story and vision to prevent gang involvement, I mentor and aim to save as many lives as possible by connecting with Latino youth in individual and group settings. I motivate and engage Latino youth to make better choices, live healthy and accomplished lives; I have been able to do so by, working with at-risk Latino youth and families and collaborating with community agencies, school and mentors and leaders. My current work, education goals and network of community partnerships facilitates my continued growth and ability to accomplish my vision. References available upon request.
