RUTHANN MARTIN

SUMMARY

Highly skilled corporate attorney with nine years experience in-house at both public and private companies, as well as over six years large law firm experience. Currently committed to serving non-profits on a pro-bono basis. Served as interim VP of Legal Affairs for mid-size public company and as sole legal counsel for small software manufacturer. Strong background in federal securities law compliance; superior expertise in the review and negotiation of highly complex technology consulting services agreements and software licensing agreements; and significant experience in advising nonprofits, specializing in the areas of corporate governance and data privacy. Effective manager of outside counsel and internal staff in connection with litigation, M&A transactions, data-privacy and intellectual property maintenance. Demonstrated history of strong writing, good judgment, practical business acumen, and strong interpersonal skills. Able to provide exceptional work product in deadline-driven environment. Cum laude graduate of Seattle University Law School.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Avanade Inc. (Outside Counsel) 2001-2005, 2009 - 2011
(Inside Counsel: "Assistant Counsel & Manager European Affairs") 2000 - 2001

Assisted start-up joint venture between Microsoft and Accenture in drafting its initial Consulting Services Terms and Conditions Agreement, its Recruiting and Employment Agreements and various other templates; worked with local counsel in five European jurisdictions to create localized versions of these agreements. Supported U.S. and European sales by reviewing and negotiating wide array of commercial agreements with customers and vendors, including Consulting Services Agreements, Teaming Agreements, Non-Disclosure Agreements, Lease Agreements, Procurement Agreements and Sales and Licensing Agreements. Also assisted drafting miscellaneous intra-company agreements governing the relationships between and among Accenture, Microsoft, Avanade and its global subsidiaries. Provided training to contract coordinators to enable them to manage contract review process. Managed corporate governance procedures; and oversaw outside counsel in providing U.S. and European domain name enforcement and data-privacy compliance. From October 2001 through April 2005 and from October 2009 on, provided services to Company as outside counsel.

NetMotion Wireless, Inc. (Outside Counsel) 2009 - 2010

Served as sole legal counsel to this small software manufacturer; provided general commercial advice to management; provided support for U.S. sales team in reviewing and negotiating complex license-in and license-out agreements; advised internal clients on a variety of commercial agreements, including NDA's, and real property lease agreements. Revised End User License Agreement template, with particular focus on third-party, open-source licensing compliance. Advised management on the revision of enterprise-wide, form agreements; assisted with European localization of Reseller and Distributor Agreements.

Data Dimensions, Inc. (Interim Vice-President of Legal Affairs) (NASDAQ symbol: DDIM) 1998 - 1999

Interfaced with Board of Directors, outside counsel, executives and division heads; managed five-member legal department and oversaw contract review process. Reviewed and negotiated commercial contracts, including software licensing and distribution agreements, marketing agreements, "terms and conditions" agreements, procurement, equipment leasing, real estate leases, subcontracting agreements, and confidentiality agreements.

Monitored legislation relating to Y2K and prepared budget forecasts. Provided due diligence and review of all agreements in connection with mergers and acquisitions; managed corporate governance and litigation. Prepared filings relating to stock transfers by Company's officers and directors under federal securities laws.
