Global Visionaries

1. Why do you want to become a member of the Seattle Youth Commission? I want to become a member of the Seattle Youth Commission because it would be an excellent opportunity for me to give back to the community through my service and to do the best I can to improve the overall quality of life for youths in the Seattle area.

2. What issues are you passionate about in your community, and why? I am passionate about the quality and accessibility of education for youths in Seattle. This issue is important to me because as a student myself I see everyday the effect quality education can have compared to an unsatisfactory learning environment. In addition, I work at Wedgwood Elementary School as an after school care counselor and seeing the children I work with at such a young stage developmentally has really shaped how I view the importance of education in their lives.

3. What are your greatest strengths, and in what areas would you like to improve? I believe my greatest strengths are my ability to remain calm and collected in stressful situations, my almost endless patience, my desire to work hard and efficiently, and finally my willingness to connect with and understand people.

I would love to see a personal improvement in my ability to multitask and effectively lead a group.

4. As a Youth Commissioner, you'll spend a lot of time working in groups. What's your most comfortable role in a group? I feel comfortable with any role in a group, I do not feel the need to be at the center of attention but I am also comfortable with being the leader. If I was to decide on one position of a group I would pick the role of group organizer or some other logistical task oriented role. I like working with a variety of people that have diverse skill sets.

5. As mentioned above, being a Youth Commissioner requires a significant time commitment. Will you be able to attend meetings every Wednesday during the school year from 4-5:30 pm at City Hall (in downtown Seattle)? Yes

Explanation (optional):

Is there anything else you'd like to share? I worked for the Seattle Parks Department as part of the YES program for two summers and thoroughly enjoyed the experience and would like to broaden my participation in city government.

How did you hear about the Youth Commission? From a friend at school, Ryan Lenea.
