EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Results oriented executive leader with practical experience in government relations, public policy advocacy, non-profit health care and social programs, budget and policy development, agency management, project management, cross functional and interdepartmental team building, strategic planning, coalition building, mediation, negotiation, communications, community, public and media relations.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE CEO AND VICE PRESIDENT, EXTERNAL AFFAIRS & GUEST SERVICES, SEATTLE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, Seattle, Washington - 2000 to Present. Work closely with the CEO to provide leadership, advice, counsel, review and analysis on the development, implementation and deployment of organization-wide strategies, goals and prioritization of key initiatives. Collaborate with key external and internal stakeholders, senior leaders, faculty, government officials and community leaders to gain input, understanding of and support for Seattle Children's mission and strategic plan. Lead local, regional, state and federal government and community relations for the benefit of the hospital and the patients and families we serve. Lead Children's guest services program serving patients and families from across Washington, Alaska, Montana and Idaho, assisting with transportation, housing, care coordination and other family needs. Coordinate with external partners a range of targeted community advocacy initiatives aimed at promoting child health.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, WASHINGTON COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH COUNCIL, Seattle, Washington - 1997 to 2000. Provided executive leadership to increase the policy impact of this professional organization composed of 50 community mental health centers located throughout Washington State. Organizational activities included public policy advocacy, education and training services, and public education to improve systems of care, reduce the stigma associated with mental illness, and achieve parity in mental health coverage and access to care.

CO-DIRECTOR, WASHINGTON STATE CHILDREN'S JUSTICE CENTER, Seattle, Washington - 1996 to 1997. Worked to establish a new non-profit organization to catalyze innovation and reform in public services for families, and provide legal advocacy for children.

DEPUTY SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES, Olympia, Washington - 1993 to 1996. Assisted in the leadership and management of the $5 billion umbrella agency providing services for over one million Washington residents annually. Areas of special emphasis included budget and finance, information systems, union/management relations and cross-program coordination.

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY AND GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS, CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL CENTER, Seattle, Washington - 1988 to 1993. Managed the federal, state and local government affairs agenda for the medical center and satellite clinics. Developed the community relations program. Coordinated the child advocacy agenda. Participated in strategic planning as a member of the six person chief executive office staff.

SENIOR BUDGET ANALYST, WASHINGTON STATE SENATE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE, Olympia, Washington - 1985 to 1988. Developed budget and policy recommendations for human service programs including income assistance, medical assistance, children and family services, and aging and adult services.

MANAGEMENT AUDITOR, WASHINGTON STATE LEGISLATIVE BUDGET COMMITTEE, Olympia, Washington - 1984 to 1985. Conducted management audits covering broad program scope including education, pensions, social services and water quality.

INVESTIGATOR, BETTER GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION, Chicago, Illinois - 1978 to 1984. Investigated waste, inefficiency and corruption in government as a non-partisan effort in partnership with print and electronic media. Advocated for specific reforms through the media, white paper reports and public testimony. Special project areas included a child advocacy project funded by the Joyce Foundation and projects of national scope funded by the MacArthur Foundation.
