We would take the ferry over from the Peninsula and hop on the monorail to catch a Sonics game, play at the Pacific Science Center and International Fountain, attend a concert or play, and, on very special occasions, visit the Space Needle. I've always thought of Seattle Center as the heart of Seattle." Ms. Golden now lives just a few blocks away from Seattle Center in lower Queen Anne. Her work as a land use attorney as exposed her to projects throughout Seattle and has led to an interest in local politics, land use, neighborhood planning, and design. The Seattle Center Advisory Commission will be an ideal forum for Ms. Golden to combine her professional and extracurricular interests with her love of Seattle Center.
