Background: Katherine works at VIA Architecture in Seattle. She has Masters degrees in both architecture and urban planning from the University of Washington. She is described by colleagues as bringing a breadth of design and planning expertise to the Seattle scene from having experienced living and working in urban environments as diverse as Copenhagen and Shanghai. Her professional focus to date has been on public projects, an essential part of which is citizen engagement and public participation. Katie has served as co-chair of the AIA Seattle Historic Resources Committee and has been a volunteer member of the University of Washington Department of Architecture Professionals Advisory Council. She is a five-year resident of the Queen Anne/ Uptown Neighborhood.
