Will you need any special arrangements to be able to participate in Youth Commission meetings? No.

Please list and describe any groups or organizations that you're currently involved with or that you plan to be involved with next year.

Groups and activities I am currently involved in: MESA, Upward Bound, after school cooking class

I plan to be involved: Key Club, soccer school team, MESA club Vice President, Latino Club, Musical Theatre

1. Why do you want to become a member of the Seattle Youth Commission? I want to have a voice in yourh policies. I would also like to join because I would like to be part of that difference Seattle Youth Commission makes in Seattle and develop leadership skills. Becoming a part of SYC would be a way for me to be more involved in my community, city, and build new connections with new people. As a member I would be able to apply my skill helping other because that is something I like to do.

2. What issues are you passionate about in your community, and why? One of the issues that I am most passionat about my community is the trash that is left around everywhere. I am passionate about this issue because the trash left around my neighborhood school is affecting our environment, the plants and the animals such as birds and squirrels. We as a community should try to look for method to decrease littering.

3. What are your greatest strengths, and in what areas would you like to improve? My greatest strengths are problem solving, and the ability to work well with others. Other strengths I have are that I like to be an active participant and stay organized.

Areas that I would like to improve on is being able to manage my time better. I would also like to improve my communication and presentation skills in front of many people because at times I get stage fright and don't say everything I wanted to.

4. As a Youth Commissioner, you'll spend a lot of time working in groups. What's your most comfortable role in a group? When working in groups I tend to work well and I am comfortable taking any role that I am assigned to whether it's taking the lead role or making sure everyone in the group participates and being involved.

5. As mentioned above, being a Youth Commissioner requires a significant time commitment. Will you be able to attend meetings every Wednesday during the school year from 4-5:30 pm at City Hall (in downtown Seattle)? Yes

Explanation (optional):

Is there anything else you'd like to share?

How did you hear about the Youth Commission? I heard about the Youth Commission through my counselor in Upward Bound.
