1. How would you rate your participation in the Youth Commission this year?

3

Why?

I did attend most of the meetings (only missing a few due to sickness or scholastic reasons) and my committee did accomplish its goals. However, I did not feel that I went above and beyond, and I aim to do so in the next year.

2. Why do you want to serve on the Youth Commission again?

I want to improve upon my prior service and really make a difference. Despite the ups and downs of the past year, I have enjoyed my time on the commission and would love to continue with it. Mainly, I'd like to do a better job than I have in previous years.

3. What was your most positive experience as a Youth Commissioner this year?

My most positive experience was the speaker series with Eric Lui. I think it went really well and I'm excited for the next one.

4. What was your most challenging experience?

My most challenging experience was publicizing and trying to get people to come to different events like town hall and the speaker series.

5. What skills and knowledge did you gain, and what would you hope to gain next year?

I gained a lot more knowledge about how Seattle works as a city and some of the issues that it goes through. Next year I would like to gain more relationships with city officials and a deeper knowledge of politics in Seattle.

6a. In what activities do you expect to participate next year, and how will you make the Youth Commission a priority on your schedule?

I will be playing lacrosse and soccer. Next year I will make the commission a bigger priority during lacrosse season and come to more meetings during that time.

6b. Will you be able to attend Youth Commission meetings at City Hall every Wednesday from 4:00 – 5:30 during the school year?

Yes

7. How would you be an active leader on the Commission next year?

I would like to take a more active role in subcommittees and be more productive in the subcommittees. I would also like to voice my opinion more in group discussions.

8. What's the one thing you'd most like to accomplish on the Commission next year?

I would like to do more with civil engagement. I started wanting to focus on that in the beginning of this year, but ended up getting off it. Next year I want to find a curriculum for a civil engagement class and try to work with it.

9. What are some changes you'd like to see in the program, and what will you do to help make them happen?

I would like to have more guest speakers because I thought the ones we had this year were very interesting.

10. Is there anything else you'd like to say? (optional)
