Boards & Commissions Request for Appointment and Reappointment

From Felicia Yearwood

Date May 28, 2013

Seattle Commission for People with disAbilities

New Appointments

Following are the bios for applicants who request consideration for an initial appointment.

Robert Canamar

Robert Canamar, a disabled veteran and wheelchair user, has been active for the past twenty-five years advocating for individuals who are homeless and poor. Robert previously served as a member of the Seattle Housing Authority Resident Action Council and President of Ballard House Community Council. Robert has been active with Poverty Action Network, Progressive Majority, League of Conservation Voters, and People for the American Way. Robert was instrumental in the creation of the Commission through his service on the ad hoc Committee to Establish a Seattle Disabilities Commission. Robert has been engaged with the Commission, regularly attends meetings and special events, and has begun serving on the Transportation Subcommittee.

Ryan Troyer

Ryan Troyer graduated the University of Washington, Bothell with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Interdisciplinary Arts in Environmental Sciences and Technology, with a minor in Human Rights. While a student, Ryan Identified and tested access issues for university campus, recommended cost-effective solutions for access modifications, and advised on accessible signage solutions. Ryan has tested website accessibility for Starbucks and divisions of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. Re-Appointments

Following are the bios for Commissioners who request consideration for reappointment.

Mike Barta

Mike Barta has a background in disability theory specifically related to inclusion, stigma, and independence. Mike was a member of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines working group for the W3C which created the standard for digital accessibility concerns. He is knowledgeable about adaptive solutions, both technical AT and practical work arounds. Mike is retired from 15 years at Microsoft and is currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Policy. Mike has begun working with the City's Department of Information Technology on a plan to develop a web portal for disability-related issues. Mike chairs the Commission's nominating committee.

Laura Gramer

Laura Gramer serves on the board of Abused Deaf Women's Advocacy Services and works as an occupational therapist. While living in Illinois, Laura served on the Universal Access Commission, the Open Doors Organization, the Illinois Occupational Therapy Association, and the Progress Center for Independent Living. Laura has engaged in substantial public speaking and lecturing on deafness, disability, and occupational therapy. Laura has consistently worked to bridge the deaf and deaf-blind communities to the larger disability rights community. Laura actively represents the Commission at community events, including recently the Phinney Neighborhood Association and the SPD Safe Communities Outreach, and serves as the Commission Co-Chair.
