CITY OF SEATTLE
ORDINANCE 124862
COUNCIL BILL 118403

AN ORDINANCE related to rental housing; and amending Seattle Municipal Code subsection 22.206.160.C to require the owners of rental housing units to provide additional advance written notice to tenants prior to eviction.

WHEREAS, an owner of rental housing is currently required to provide 20 days' notice to a tenant when the owner decides to evict a tenant to allow the owner or a member of the owner's immediate family to occupy a unit; and

WHEREAS, similarly, an owner of a single family dwelling unit is currently required to provide 60 days' notice to a tenant when the owner elects to evict the tenant and sell the dwelling unit; and

WHEREAS, the vacancy rate for rental housing in Seattle is currently under 5 percent, making it difficult for tenants to obtain housing in a short time period; and

WHEREAS, providing additional time for a tenant to find new housing in the circumstances described above will help tenants obtain new housing; NOW, THEREFORE;

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Subsection 22.206.160.C of the Seattle Municipal Code, which section was last amended by Ordinance 123564, is amended as follows:

C. Just Cause Eviction((;-))

1. Pursuant to provisions of the state Residential Landlord-Tenant Act (RCW 59.18.290), owners may not evict residential tenants without a court order, which can be issued by a court only after the tenant has an opportunity in a show cause hearing to contest the eviction

(RCW 59.18.380). In addition, owners of housing units shall not evict or attempt to evict any tenant, or otherwise terminate or attempt to terminate the tenancy of any tenant unless the owner can prove in court that just cause exists. The reasons for termination of tenancy listed below, and no others, shall constitute just cause under this ((s))Section 22.206.160:

a. The tenant fails to comply with a three day notice to pay rent or vacate pursuant to RCW 59.12.030(3); a ten day notice to comply or vacate pursuant to RCW 59.12.030(4); or a three day notice to vacate for waste, nuisance (including a drug-related activity nuisance pursuant to ((RCW))Chapter 7.43 RCW), or maintenance of an unlawful business or conduct pursuant to RCW 59.12.030(5);

b. The tenant habitually fails to pay rent when due which causes the owner to notify the tenant in writing of late rent four or more times in a 12 month period;

c. The tenant fails to comply with a ten day notice to comply or vacate that requires compliance with a material term of the rental agreement or that requires compliance with a material obligation under ((RCW-))Chapter 59.18 RCW;

d. The tenant habitually fails to comply with the material terms of the rental agreement which causes the owner to serve a ten day notice to comply or vacate three or more times in a 12 month period;

e. The owner seeks possession so that the owner or a member of his or her immediate family may occupy the unit as that person's principal residence and no substantially equivalent unit is vacant and available in the same building, and the owner has given the tenant at least 90 days' advance written notice of the date the tenant's possession is to end. The Director may reduce the time required to give notice to no less than 20 days if the Director determines that delaying occupancy will result in a personal hardship to the owner or to

1 the owner's immediate family. Personal hardship may include but is not limited to hardship
2 caused by illness or accident, unemployment, or job relocation. For the purposes of this Section
3 22.206.160, "Immediate family" ((shall)) includes the owner's domestic partner registered
4 pursuant to Section 1 of Ordinance 117244¹² or the owner's spouse, parents, grandparents,
5 children, brothers and sisters of the owner, of the owner's spouse, or of the owner's domestic 6 partner. There is ((shall be)) a rebuttable presumption of a violation of this subsection
7 22.206.160.C.1.((a))e if the owner or a member of the owner's immediate family fails to occupy
8 the unit as that person's principal residence for at least 60 consecutive days during the 90 days
9 immediately after the tenant vacated the unit pursuant to a notice of termination or eviction using 10 this subparagraph as the cause for eviction;

11 f. The owner elects to sell a single-family dwelling unit and gives 12 the tenant at least ((60))90 days' written notice prior to the date set for vacating, which date
13 shall coincide with the end of the term of a rental agreement, or if the agreement is month to 14 month, with the last day of a monthly period. The Director may reduce the time required to 15 give notice to no less than 60 days if the Director determines that providing 90 days' notice
16 will result in a personal hardship to the owner. Personal hardship may include but is not 17 limited to hardship caused by illness or accident, unemployment, or job relocation. For the 18 purposes of this ((s))Section 22.206.160, an owner "elects to sell" when the owner makes 19 reasonable attempts to sell the dwelling within 30 days after the tenant has vacated, including,
20 at a minimum, listing it for sale at a reasonable price with a realty agency or advertising it for 21 sale at a reasonable price in a newspaper of general circulation. There shall be a rebuttable 22 presumption that the owner did not intend to sell the unit if:

1 1) Within 30 days after the tenant has vacated, the owner
2 does not list the single-family dwelling unit for sale at a reasonable price with a realty agency
3 or advertise it for sale at a reasonable price in a newspaper of general circulation, or

4 2) Within 90 days after the date the tenant vacated or the 5 date the property was listed for sale, whichever is later, the owner withdraws the rental unit
6 from the market, rents the unit to someone other than the former tenant, or otherwise indicates 7 that the owner does not intend to sell the unit;

8 g. The tenant's occupancy is conditioned upon employment on the 9 property and the employment relationship is terminated;

10 h. The owner seeks to do substantial rehabilitation in the building;
11 provided that, the owner must obtain a tenant relocation license if required by Chapter 22.210
12 and at least one permit necessary for the rehabilitation, other than a Master Use Permit, before 13 terminating the tenancy;

14 i. The owner (i) elects to demolish the building, convert it to a
15 cooperative, or convert it to a nonresidential use; provided that, the owner must obtain a tenant
16 relocation license if required by Chapter 22.210 and a permit necessary to demolish or change
17 the use before terminating any tenancy, or (ii) converts the building to a condominium
18 provided the owner complies with the provisions of Sections 22.903.030 and 22.903.035;

19 j. The owner seeks to discontinue use of a housing unit
20 unauthorized by Title 23 after receipt of a notice of violation(~~thereof~~). The owner is required 21 to pay relocation assistance to the tenant(s) of each such unit at least two weeks prior to the 22 date set for termination of the tenancy, at the rate of:

1) $2,000 for a tenant household with an income during the past 12 months at or below 50 percent of the County median income, or

2) Two months' rent for a tenant household with an income during the past 12 months above 50 percent of the County median income;

k. The owner seeks to reduce the number of individuals residing in a dwelling unit to comply with the maximum limit of individuals allowed to occupy one dwelling unit, as required by Title 23, and:

1) a) The number of such individuals was more than is lawful under the current version of Title 23 or Title 24 but was lawful under Title 23 or Title 24 on August 10, 1994;

b) That number has not increased with the knowledge or consent of the owner at any time after August 10, 1994; and

c) The owner is either unwilling or unable to obtain a permit to allow the unit with that number of residents.

2) The owner has served the tenants with a 30 day notice, informing the tenants that the number of tenants exceeds the legal limit and must be reduced to the legal limit,

3) After expiration of the 30 day notice, the owner has served the tenants with and the tenants have failed to comply with a ten day notice to comply with the limit on the number of occupants or vacate, and

4) If there is more than one rental agreement for the unit, the owner may choose which agreements to terminate; provided that, the owner may either terminate no more than the minimum number of rental agreements necessary to comply with

1 the legal limit on the number of occupants, or, at the owner's option, terminate only those 2 agreements involving the minimum number of occupants necessary to comply with the legal 3 limit;

4 1. 1) The owner seeks to reduce the number of individuals
5 who reside in one dwelling unit to comply with the legal limit after receipt of a notice of 6 violation of the Title 23 restriction on the number of individuals allowed to reside in a 7 dwelling unit, and:

8 a) The owner has served the tenants with a 30 day
9 notice, informing the tenants that the number of tenants exceeds the legal limit and must be
10 reduced to the legal limit; provided that, no 30 day notice is required if the number of tenants
11 was increased above the legal limit without the knowledge or consent of the owner;

12 b) After expiration of the 30 day notice required by 13 subsection 22.206.160.1.1.a above, or at any time after receipt of the notice of violation if no 14 30 day notice is required pursuant to subsection 22.206.160.1.1.a, the owner has served the 15 tenants with and the tenants have failed to comply with a ~~((40))~~ten day notice to comply with 16 the maximum legal limit on the number of occupants or vacate; and

17 c) If there is more than one rental agreement for the 18 unit, the owner may choose which agreements to terminate; provided that, the owner may 19 either terminate no more than the minimum number of rental agreements necessary to comply
20 with the legal limit on the number of occupants, or, at the option of the owner, terminate only 21 those agreements involving the minimum number of occupants necessary to comply with the 22 legal limit.

2) For any violation of the maximum legal limit on the number of individuals allowed to reside in a unit that occurred with the knowledge or consent of the owner, the owner is required to pay relocation assistance to the tenant(s) of each such unit at least two weeks prior to the date set for termination of the tenancy, at the rate of:

a) $2,000 for a tenant household with an income during the past 12 months at or below 50 percent of the county median income, or

b) Two months' rent for a tenant household with an income during the past 12 months above 50 percent of the county median income;

m. The owner seeks to discontinue use of an accessory dwelling unit for which a permit has been obtained pursuant to Sections 23.44.041 and 23.45.545 after receipt of a notice of violation of the development standards provided in those sections. The owner is required to pay relocation assistance to the tenant household residing in such a unit at least two weeks prior to the date set for termination of the tenancy, at the rate of:

1) $2,000 for a tenant household with an income during the past 12 months at or below 50 percent of the county median income, or

2) Two months' rent for a tenant household with an income during the past 12 months above 50 percent of the county median income;

n. An emergency order requiring that the housing unit be vacated and closed has been issued pursuant to Section 22.206.260 and the emergency conditions identified in the order have not been corrected;

o. The owner seeks to discontinue sharing with a tenant of the owner's own housing unit, i.e., the unit in which the owner resides, seeks to terminate the tenancy of a tenant of an accessory dwelling unit authorized pursuant to Sections 23.44.041

1 and 23.45.545 that is accessory to the housing unit in which the owner resides, or seeks to 2 terminate the tenancy of a tenant in a single-family dwelling unit and the owner resides in an
3 accessory dwelling unit on the same lot. This subsection 22.206.160.C.1.o does not apply if 4 the owner has received a notice of violation of the development standards of Section
5 23.44.041. If the owner has received such a notice of violation, subsection 22.206.160.C.1.m
6 applies;

7 p. A tenant, or with the consent of the tenant, (~~his or her~~)the 8 tenant's subtenant, sublessee, resident, or guest, has engaged in criminal activity on the 9 premises, or on the property or public right-of-way abutting the premises, and the owner has 10 specified in the notice of termination the crime alleged to have been committed and the 11 general facts supporting the allegation, and has assured that the Department of Planning and 12 Development has recorded receipt of a copy of the notice of termination. For purposes of this 13 subsection 22.206.160.C.1.p, a person has "engaged in criminal activity" if he or she:

14 1) Engages in drug-related activity that would constitute a 15 violation of (~~RCW~~) Chapters 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, or 16 2) Engages in activity that is a crime under the laws of this 17 state, but only if the activity substantially affects the health or safety of other tenants or the 18 owner.

1. BILL SUMMARY

Legislation Title:

AN ORDINANCE related to rental housing; and amending Seattle Municipal Code subsection 22.206.160.C to require the owners of rental housing units to provide additional advance written notice to tenants prior to eviction.

Summary and background of the Legislation:

Currently, an owner of rental housing is required to provide 20 days' notice to a tenant when the owner decides to occupy a unit or allow a family member to occupy a unit resulting in the need for an existing tenant to move. In addition, an owner of rental housing is required to provide 60 days' notice to a tenant when the owner decides to sell the single family rental unit in which the tenant resides. .

The proposed legislation requires the owner of rental housing to give the tenant 90 days' instead of 20 days' notice when the owner wants to move into a unit or move a family member into a unit. Additionally, the legislation requires an owner to given a tenant 90 days' instead of 60 days' notice when the owner wants to sell a single family rental unit. The Director may reduce the time required to give notice will result in a personal hardship to the owner. Personal hardship may include but is not limited to hardship caused by illness or accident, unemployment, or job relocation.

These changes provide tenants more time to successfully find new housing units, particularly, given the current tight rental housing market in the City.

c) Does this legislation affect any departments besides the originating department?

N/A

(If so, please list the affected department(s), the nature of the impact (financial, operational, etc), and indicate which staff members in the other department(s) are aware of the proposed legislation.)

d) Is a public hearing required for this legislation? N/A

(If yes, what public hearing(s) have been held to date, and/or what public hearing(s) are planned for the future?)

e) Is publication of notice with The Daily Journal of Commerce and/or The Seattle Times required for this legislation? N/A

(For example, legislation related to sale of surplus property, condemnation, or certain capital projects with private partners may require publication of notice. If you aren't sure, please check with your lawyer. If publication of notice is required, describe any steps taken to comply with that requirement.)

f) Does this legislation affect a piece of property? N/A

(If yes, and if a map or other visual representation of the property is not already included as an exhibit or attachment to the legislation itself, then you must include a map and/or other visual representation of the property and its location as an attachment to the fiscal note. Place a note on the map attached to the fiscal note that indicates the map is intended for illustrative or informational purposes only and is not intended to modify anything in the legislation.)

g) Please describe any perceived implication for the principles of the Race and Social Justice Initiative. Does this legislation impact vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities? Possibly, to the extent vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities are renters and would be subject to such evictions and are then provided more time to find alternative rental housing.

(If yes, please explain how this legislation may impact vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities. Using the racial equity toolkit is one way to help determine the legislation's impact on certain communities.)

h) If this legislation includes a new initiative or a major programmatic expansion: What are the long-term and measurable goals of the program? Please describe how this legislation would help achieve the program's desired goals. N/A

(This answer should highlight measureable outputs and outcomes.)
