CLOSING AGREEMENT AND ESCROW INSTRUCTIONS
For Purchase and Sale Transaction

The undersigned purchaser (sometimes hereinafter referred to as "buyer" or "Buyer") and seller(s) (referred to herein as "the parties") hereby designate and appoint

Guardian Northwest Title

(referred to herein as "the closing agent", "the Closing Agent", the closing Agent" or "the Escrow Agent") to act as their closing and escrow agent according to the following agreements and instructions.

IT IS AGREED, AND THE CLOSING AGENT IS INSTRUCTED, AS FOLLOWS:

Terms of Sale. The terms and conditions of the transaction which is the subject of these instructions (referred to herein as "the transaction") are set forth in the parties' Purchase and Sale Agreement, Earnest Money Agreement, or other written agreement, and any attachments, amendments or addenda to that agreement (referred to herein as "the parties' agreement"), which is made a part of these instructions by this reference. If the Purchase and Sale Agreement provides that a commission is due at closing, the Company will require payment of the commission according to the broker's demand, which will be furnished at the Closing Agent's request. Any changes to the parties' agreement will be made a part of these instructions, without further reference, when signed by the parties and delivered to the closing agent. These instructions are not intended to amend, modify or supersede the terms and conditions of the parties' agreement and if there is any conflict or inconsistency between these instructions and the parties' agreement, the terms and conditions of these instructions shall control as to Closing Agent. Any matters which are later determined by the parties to exist shall be matters entirely between the parties and the Closing Agent is hereby indemnified and held harmless from such future issues which may arise between the parties to this transaction if the Closing Agent has complied fully and faithfully with these instructions.

Description of Real Property. The real property which is the subject of the transaction (referred to herein as "the property") is identified in the parties' agreement. The documents required to close the transaction must contain the "legal description" of the property. If the parties' agreement does not yet contain the correct legal description, the parties or the real estate agent shall obtain an addendum setting forth the legal description as soon as possible and deliver it to the closing agent.

Closing Date. The date on which the documents required to close the transaction are filed for record (referred to herein as "the closing date") shall be on or before the date for closing of the transaction specified in the parties' agreement or in an addendum extending that date.

Documents. The closing agent is instructed to select, prepare, complete, correct, receive, hold, record and deliver documents as necessary to close the transaction. The closing agent may request that certain documents be prepared or obtained by the parties or their attorneys, in which case the parties shall deliver the requested documents to the closing agent before the closing date. Execution of any document will be considered approval of its form and contents by each party signing such document.

Deposits and Disbursement of Funds. Before the closing date, each party shall deposit with the closing agent all funds required to be paid by such party to close the transaction, less any earnest money previously deposited with the real estate agent. The parties acknowledge that all funds delivered to the Closing Agent in connection with this escrow will be deposited into a non-interest bearing escrow trust account with a financial institution doing business in the State of Washington whose deposits, at least up to the amount of the funds so deposited, are covered by FDIC insurance. The parties further acknowledge that in calculating the amount of available insurance, the FDIC will consolidate funds deposited under this escrow with all other funds of the party supplying the funds which are on deposit with the account bank. Each of the parties releases and indemnifies the Closing Agent from any liability for, and assumes all responsibility for any loss to such party which may result from a lack of FDIC insurance arising solely by reason of such party having additional funds on deposit with the financial institution used by the Closing Agent for its escrow account(s). Current FDIC Regulations pertaining to Escrow Trust accounts (12 CFR § 300.5), with which the Closing Agent agrees to comply, covers the requirement that funds held by the Closing Agent in escrow for the transaction to which these instructions pertain will be treated as owned by the respective principals to the transaction (i.e., seller(s) or purchaser, as applicable). More information related to FDIC insurance is explained on their official website: <https://www.fdic.gov>

Also, we direct you to the following link on said website to download for examples and further details:
<https://www.fdic.gov/deposit/deposits/brochures/Your%20Insured%20Deposits%20-%20English.pdf>

The parties acknowledge that the Closing Agent may receive compensatory or monetary benefits from the financial institution based on the total averaged account balances of its escrow trust account deposits. The closing agent is authorized, but not required, to consider a lending institution's written commitment to deposit funds as the equivalent of a deposit of such funds, if all conditions of the commitment will be met on or before the closing date. The closing agent shall not be required to disburse any funds deposited by check or draft until it has been advised by its bank that such check or draft has been honored. All disbursements shall be made by the closing agent's check or if the payee so instructs in writing, by electronic wire transfer with a reasonable additional charge to the appropriate party who's responsibility it is to make or receive such payment, which shall include an administration fee to the Closing Agent of not more than $20.00 per wire made. Funds which are undisbursed and not claimed within six (6) months are subject to any reasonable maintenance and/or work fees due Closing Agent. Any residual amount will be disbursed to the State of Washington pursuant to the Unclaimed Property Act. The closing Agent is required to give notice to the parties if the unclaimed funds exceed $75.00. The closing Agent is not required to disburse funds of less than Ten ($10.00) Dollars and shall retain same at closing as administration fees.

Settlement Statement. The closing agent is instructed to prepare a settlement statement showing all funds deposited for the account of each of the parties and the proposed disbursements from such funds. No funds shall be disbursed until the parties have examined and approved the settlement statement. Some items may be estimated, and the final amount of each estimated item will be adjusted to the exact amount required to be paid at the time of disbursement. The settlement statement will be subject to audit and any errors or omissions may be corrected at any time. If any monetary error is found, the amount will be immediately paid by the party liable for such payment to the party entitled to receive it.

Prorations. Adjustments or pro-rations of real estate taxes, and other charges, including recurring assessments for public improvements, if any, which appear on the Title Report, shall be made on a per-diem basis using a 365 or 366 day year, as applicable, unless the closing agent is otherwise instructed.

Title Insurance. The closing agent is instructed to obtain and forward to the parties a preliminary commitment for title insurance on the property and on any other parcel of real property that will be used to secure payment of any obligation created in the transaction (referred to herein as "the title report"). The closing agent is authorized to rely on the title report in the performance of its duties and solely in its capacity as closing agent, and not in its capacity as title insurer or Title Insurance Agency, shall have no responsibility or liability for any title defects or encumbrances, which are not disclosed in the title report. The Title Insurance Agency reserves the right to reduce either party's portion of Agencies fees, when in the Agency's sole discretion a "Volume of Business" discount is warranted, and provided that such reduction does not increase the portion of such fees to be paid by any other party.

Verification of Existing Encumbrances. The closing agent is instructed to request a written statement from the holder of each existing encumbrance on the property, verifying its status, terms, balance owing and, if it will not be removed at closing, the requirements that must be met to obtain a waiver of any due-on-sale provision. The closing agent is authorized to rely upon such written statements in the performance of its duties, without liability or responsibility for their accuracy or completeness. The closing Agent may not rely upon any verbal payoff as it be regarded as incomplete or inaccurate by the lender upon receipt.

Borrower acknowledges that the payoff figures on any existing loans are not to be considered paid in full until payoff funds have been RECEIVED AND ACCEPTED by the encumbrance holder. Guardian may use a third party to facilitate the obtaining of a full Reconveyance from the existing encumbrance(s) being paid in full herein. In that connection, fees for such service will be paid in full out of seller/borrower's funds upon closing of this transaction.

Borrower acknowledges that payoff amounts reflected on the settlement statement are based on figures provided to the Escrow Agent in writing by the existing encumbrance holder, which Escrow Agent believes to be reliable. The closing agent is authorized to rely upon such written representations in the performance of its duties, without liability or responsibility for their accuracy or completeness.

Should the existing encumbrance holder alter or adjust these figures or payoff is not accepted as payment in full, for any reason, the Escrow Agent is authorized and instructed to make the necessary adjustment and notify Seller/Borrower, who agrees to immediately deposit any and all additional funds with Escrow Agent in order to allow Escrow Agent to complete the payoff in full.

Borrower authorizes the Escrow Agent to transmit all payoff funds by overnight courier (i.e., FEDEX, UPS, etc.) or wire transfer, at the discretion of the Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent may add a minimum of three (3) business days per diem interest to the payoff. However, should the overnight courier or wire transferred payoff funds not be delivered to the encumbrance holder within the three (3) day period, for whatever reason, the Borrower agrees to deposit any and all additional funds required by the encumbrance holder to complete said payment in full. The Escrow Agent is hereby relieved and discharged of any liability and or responsibility for receipt of said payoff funds by beneficiary of said encumbrance. Borrower further indemnifies the Escrow Agent against any and all claims resulting therefrom.

Instructions From Third Parties. If any written instructions necessary to close the transaction according to the parties' agreement are given to the closing agent by anyone other than the parties or their attorneys, including but not limited to lenders, such instructions are accepted and agreed to by the parties, provided that such third-party instructions are not inconsistent with the parties' agreement or these instructions.

Disclosure of Information to Third Parties. The closing agent is authorized to furnish, upon request, copies of any closing documents, agreements or instructions concerning the transaction to the parties' attorneys, and to any real estate agent, lender or title insurance company involved in the transaction. Other papers or documents containing personal or financial information concerning any party may not be released to anyone other than the party's attorney or lender, without prior written approval by such party.

Potential Legal Problems. If the closing agent becomes aware of any facts, circumstances or potential problems which in the closing agent's opinion should be reviewed by any of the parties' attorneys, the closing agent is authorized, in its sole discretion, to advise the parties of such facts, circumstances or potential problems and recommend that legal counsel be sought.

Closing Agent's Fees and Expenses. The closing agent's fee is intended as compensation for the services set forth in these instructions. If additional services are required to comply with any change or addition to the parties' agreement or these instructions, or as a result of any party's assignment of interest or delay in performance, the parties agree to pay a reasonable additional fee for such services. The parties shall also reimburse the closing agent for any out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by it under these instructions. The closing agent's fees, costs and expenses shall be due and payable on the closing date or other termination of the closing agent's duties and responsibilities under these instructions, and shall be paid one-half by the buyer and one-half by the seller unless otherwise provided in the parties' agreement. The Closing Agent reserves the right to reduce either parties' portion of Agent's fees, when in the Agent's sole discretion a "Volume of Business" discount is warranted, and provided that such reduction does not increase the portion of such fees to be paid by any other party.

Cancellation. These instructions may be canceled by a written agreement, signed by all of the parties, and payment of the closing agent's fees, costs and expenses. Upon receipt of such agreement and payment, the closing agent shall return any money or documents then held by it to the parties as directed by such agreement, pursuant to the Interpleader paragraph below, and shall have no further duties or responsibilities under these instructions.

Interpleader. In the event that the proposed sale fails to close pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement the parties herein agree to execute a Rescission Agreement instructing Closing Agent how to disburse the monies in its possession. Should no Rescission Agreement, fully executed by both Buyer(s) and Seller(s), be provided to "Closing Agent" within two months of the earlier of either: proposed closing date or the date upon which "Closing agent" was first notified that said transaction would not be closing, "Closing agent" may undertake the following without further approval from either party, either jointly or severally:

1. Inform both Buyer(s) and Seller(s) herein, in writing, that unless they jointly execute and deliver a Rescission Agreement to "Closing Agent" within one month of date of said notification, closing agent will begin deducting monthly administration fees of $50.00 per month or as amended.
2. In the event Closing Agent has not received a fully executed Rescission Agreement within 12 months from said notification, Closing Agent may interplead the monies then held to the Skagit County Superior Court.
3. Deduct from monies to be sent to the Court, Closing Agent & Title Company's reasonable cost and actual attorney's fees incurred to bring said Interpleader action to the Court.

At which time as the monies and information, regarding the parties herein, are supplied to the Court, closing agent shall have no further duties or responsibilities under this transaction. The Superior Court will then determine the rights of the parties to the remaining funds and the responsibility of each party as to the costs of the Interpleader Action.

Inability to Comply With Instructions. If the closing agent receives conflicting instructions or determines, for any reason, that it cannot comply with these instructions by the date for closing specified in the parties' agreement or in any written extension of that date, it shall notify the parties, request further instructions, and in its discretion: (1) continue to perform its duties and close the transaction as soon as possible after receiving further instructions, or (2) if no conflicting instructions have been received, return any money or documents then held by it to the parties that deposited the same, less any fees and expenses chargeable to such party, or (3) commence a court action, deposit the money and documents held by it into the registry of the court, pursuant to the Interpleader paragraph above and ask the court to determine the rights of the parties. When the money and documents have been returned to the parties or deposited into the registry of the court, the closing agent shall have no further duties or responsibilities under these instructions.

Disputes. Should any dispute arise between the parties, or any of them, and/or any other party, concerning the property or funds involved in the transaction, the closing agent may, in its sole discretion, hold all documents and funds in their existing status pending resolution of the dispute, or join or commence a court action, deposit the money and documents held by it with the court as pursuant to the Interpleader paragraph above, and ask the court to determine the rights of the parties. Upon depositing said funds and documents with the court, the closing agent shall have no further duties or responsibilities under these instructions. The parties jointly and severally agree to pay the closing agent's costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in any lawsuit arising out of or in connection with the transaction or these instructions, whether such lawsuit is instituted by the closing agent, the parties, or any other person.

Records Retention: After six (6) years from the completion of the Transaction, the Closing Agent may destroy all records, agreement and instruments relating to the closing of this Transaction, including all documentation and accounting information. All documentation may be retained electronically rather than actual original hard copies.

Notices. Any notice, declaration or request made under these instructions shall be in writing, signed by the party giving such notice or making such declaration or request, and personally delivered or mailed to the closing agent and other parties at their addresses set forth in these instructions.

Amendments. Any amendment, addition or supplement to these instructions must be in writing, signed by the appropriate parties and delivered to the closing agent.

Counterparts. These instructions may be executed in one or more counterparts with like effect as if all signatures appeared on one copy.

Effect. These instructions shall bind and benefit the parties, the closing agent, and their successors in interest.

Definitions. When used herein or in any amendment, addition or supplement hereto, words and phrases are defined and are to be construed as follows:

Personal Property. Any required inspections, approvals or transfers of possession of any owned or leased fixtures, equipment or other items of personal property included in the transaction, and payment of any personal property, sales or use taxes, will be completed by the parties outside of escrow. Unless otherwise instructed, the closing agent shall have no responsibility with respect to such personal property and shall not be required to determine the status or condition of the title to, encumbrances upon, ownership, or physical condition of such personal property, nor to calculate, pro-rate, collect, prepare returns for or pay any personal property tax, sales tax or use tax arising from the transaction.

Utilities. All orders, cancellations, transfers, payments and adjustment of accounts for water, sewer, garbage collection, electricity, gas, fuel oil, telephone, television cable and any other utilities or public services will be completed by the parties outside of escrow. Unless otherwise instructed, the closing agent shall have no responsibility to determine, collect, pay, pro-rate or adjust charges for installation or service for any utilities or public services, except to pro-rate existing recurrent assessments for public improvements, if any, which appear on the title report.

Fire or Casualty Insurance. If a new policy of fire, hazard or casualty insurance on the property is necessary to close the transaction, the buyer will arrange for the policy to be issued, outside of escrow, and will provide evidence of the required insurance coverage to the closing agent before the closing date. Unless otherwise instructed, the closing agent shall have no responsibility to contract for or obtain any policy of fire, hazard or casualty insurance on the property, or any assignment of such policy.

Possession of the Property. The transfer of possession of the property shall be arranged directly between the parties outside of escrow and shall not be the responsibility of the closing agent.

Collection Account. If any financing for the transaction will be provided by a private party, the parties are advised to open a collection account at a financial institution to receive and disburse payments to be made under the private promissory note or contract. The collection account shall be established by the parties outside of escrow and shall not be the responsibility of the closing agent.

Payment of Omitted Taxes. If any additional real property taxes are assessed for recent improvements made to the property and not added to the tax rolls before the closing date, the parties shall pay their respective shares of such omitted taxes, pro-rated as of the closing date, within 30 days after receipt of notification that such taxes have been assessed. The closing agent shall not be responsible or liable for any assessment, collection or payment of omitted taxes.

Individual Taxes. The parties are advised to consult with their attorneys to determine whether they must report income, deduct expenses or losses, or withhold or pay any income or business taxes as a result of the transaction. The closing agent shall have no responsibility for the parties' individual tax consequences arising from the transaction.

Reporting to Internal Revenue service of Sellers Proceeds: In compliance with the Tax reform Act of 1986 and the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997, seller agrees to provide all information necessary, including seller's Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN), for the preparation of a 100-S Certification of Exemption Form or Form 1099-S as required by the Internal Revenue Service.

Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act. If any seller is, or may be, a non-resident alien or a foreign corporation, partnership, trust or estate for the purposes of United States income taxation, the parties are advised to consult with their attorneys before the closing date to determine their responsibilities and liabilities, if any, under the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act (Section 1445 et seq. of the Internal Revenue Code). Except as otherwise provided by law, governmental regulation, these instructions or the parties' agreement, the closing agent is not required to verify the nationality or foreign status of any of the sellers, or to withhold, report or pay any amounts due under such act. If the parties' agreement provides that the closing agent shall, as a condition of closing, obtain any certification by the seller(s) as to their non-foreign status, such certification is not obtained, and closing nevertheless occurs, the closing agent shall withhold from the amount due sellers a sum equal to the amount required by law to be withheld, and shall, upon direction of the purchaser, remit said amount to the United States Treasury or the Internal Revenue Service in discharge of purchaser's withholding obligation.

Approvals and Permits. The parties are advised to consult with their attorneys to determine whether any building, zoning, subdivision, septic system, or other construction or land use permits or approvals will be required, either before or after the closing date. The closing agent shall have no responsibility with respect to any such permit or approval, and shall have no liability arising from the failure of any party to obtain, or from the refusal of any governmental authority to grant, any such permit or approval.

Compliance With Certain Laws. The parties are advised to consult with their attorneys to determine their rights and responsibilities, if any, with respect to disclosures concerning the condition of the property, or under the Consumer Protection Act, Truth-in-Lending Act, Interstate Land Sales Act or other similar laws. The closing agent shall have no responsibility for disclosures concerning the condition of the property, or for the parties compliance, nor any liability arising from the failure of any party to comply, with any such requirement or law.
